In the same form, you may also update (if necessary) any previously submitted information.

In particular, it is essential for us to know if you require any assistance in reaching the conference venue. Depending on your needs, we intend to arrange transportation from Poznań Main Train Station (Poznań Główny), Poznań Ławica Airport and from Mosina Train Station on September 14. Therefore, we need to know in advance the time (even an approximate one) of your arrival in Poznań or Mosina.

I kindly remind you (if you have not already done so) that the deadline for submitting abstracts is July 31, and the deadline for payment is August 15. The necessary information was given in the First Announcement:
